

Scene Around SEBA

The Scene around SEBA since our last issue has been high scores all the way. The SENATE LEAGUE BASILDON was to witness the undoubted ability of 14 year old ROBERT HOBART during the summer when he scored 241 234 225 for a 700 series. ROWLAND FOWLEY found a nice line at DAGENHAM whilst playing for BRAKES CAVELLERS in the SUPREME LEAGUE 275 224 217 for 716: SEBA MASTER TERRY SAUNDERS accompanied by JAN CORMACK in the CAPITAL DOUBLES hit a single game of 441: DICK MILLS bowling in the POLARIS LEAGUE DAGENHAM scored a personal best recently with a 543 series, his average is 126: HELEN SULLIVAN League Secretary of the HITS & MISSES LEAGUE Dagenham reports that JOHN HAVERSHAM celebrated a 626 series, and her 16yr old son had a third game of 279. She adds, he qualifies for the 'Failure Club', his first & second game totaled 288. Thanks for your your letter Helen, but it's off to the 'Failure Club' with you mum, what's his first name, and how long has John Haversham been bowling? Well done young Sullivan, I see by mum's letter you started league bowling Sept 1980; the Failure Club indeed!!! Staying at Dagenham, the COLUMBIA ROYALS have won the SOLAR LEAGUE for the fourth year in succession with 103½ points, second was ROLL-N-PINS 80½ points, third BLACK MAGIC 73½ points. Team High Game & Series was also COLUMBIA ROYALS. Individual High Series was won by NICKY PEEK, and the Individual Hage Game was won by ALAN PARKER. High Averages, ROY MYHILL 182, ALAN PARKER 176, TERRY SWORDS & NICKY PEEK 174, COLIN RACKLEY 172: We now cross the 'river' to Bexleyheath: KEITH ARCHER & MARTIN DEAN of the HALSTEAD LEAGUE scored 203 236 for a single game of 439: JANET & BUZZ MORRISON 'THE ORIGINALS' in the INVICTA MIXED DOUBLES since '1964' proved that there's life in the old dogs yet by scoring a 1176 series. They opened their account 210 203 for a first game 413, and finished 226 200 for 426 in the third.

WELL DONE GUV

BILL BRIDGE bowling for the CHESSMEN in the OLYMPIC LEAGUE hit 4 in a row, 8 spare, 4 in a row, 8 split, a single game of 242. Nice and tidy that Bill. Staying with the CHESSMEN & the Olympic League. BILL BRIDGE, ALAN FRANKLIN, PAUL STEVENS, ERIC DAVIS & DAVE TURNER scored 965 973 1051 - 2989. In the last game they hit 31 strikes, and only had 5 open frames.

BILL BRIDGE led them to the 1051 game with a last game of 235, supported by ALAN FRANKLIN with 222, and DAVE TURNER 223: ALAN JONES of the HIGHWAYMEN was robbed of a 700. 6 in a row finish for a first game of 268. Backed by a second game of 227 which started and finished with a 'turkey'. He lost his line in the last game and landed a 671 series. After the match Alan admitted he should have scored 700, but he was sober!!

STEVE WHITE	232	234	168	634
SHEILA WHITE	223	180	171	574
ALAN HUTCHINS	180	213	180	573

635 627 519 1781

Steve White hoped his 168 game would qualify for membership in to the 'Failure Club' But this series has taken the Spartan League High Game & Series!! Steve should consult his team mate Alan, He's an expert on the 'Failure Club'. RAY HOOK never far from the top scores recently scored 703, and his team the BEXLEY ALL STARS in the TUESDAY ROUND TABLE LEAGUE hit 1875. PHIL RUSSELL, ERIC DAVIS, & RAY HOOK found the line in to the pocket and kept knocking 'em down.

The GUYS & DOLLS LEAGUE has had it's share of excitement during the summer MAC McCARTNEY 677 helped his partner VAL YEATES to a 1160 Mixed Doubles Series, & PETE BOYD 682 assisted by PAM MALYON to a 1161 Mixed Doubles Series one week later, but Pete failed to upstage MAC'S 270 game: NOBBY HADLEY 235, IVAN SMART 169 PAUL YEATES 213 for a 617 game during the Olympic five person league, 912 scratch with two 'blind' scores can't be bad. The FAMOUS FIVE one thursday night left 51 splits and won two out of the three games. Names have been withheld to protect the guilty. The mind Boggles, 51 splits, I shudder to think what the scores were!!

"I'll be with you fellas in a moment!"

CALIFORNIA SMILES

WORLD GAMES ONE, SANTA CLARA, CALIFORNIA.

When GILL HOLT was asked by reporter Mary Linly "what do we have in California that you do not have back home?" Gill without much hesitation replied "SMILES" That's the way I'll remember California too, forget all the adjectives about sunshine ..... CALIFORNIA SMILES .....

Well they do have a great deal to smile about, not least of which is that they have bowling centres like we have 'Turf Accountants'. We were at the Brunswick Homestead Lanes, recently resurfaced and lacquered with Astrolane 100, thirty-two pale golden lanes with a surface like glass, they looked slick, and were faster than Concorde, (international spelling) Twenty-nine Nations lined up to contest Ladies & Mens Singles, and Mixed Doubles.....

Both Gill & Neville Robinson made the cuts into the Double Elimination two games Singles Championships; Gill lost to Gronhert from Holland 327 - 347, and was eliminated by Austrian Brendt, 353-427, meanwhile Neville beat Kim from Korea 412-371, then lost to Strom, Norway, 352-407. Now the losers section against Lee from Hong Kong. Nev converted the 3-9-10 in the last frame then bowled a seven count to go out 342 to 343; ouch!

In the Mixed Doubles the cut was to establish the last eight pairs, Gill & Nev missed the cut by little more than one spare, but that was enough to push them down to eleventh place.

LILLIAN GREGORI from France defeated Thailand's SINGHA PORNTIP in the ladies final, while ARNE STROM, Norway was forced into an extra game, but beat ERNST BERNY from Austria; the Australian pairing of RUTH GURSTER & CHRIS BATSON won the Doubles Title.

Moments to remember?? Almost too many; Gill was presented with a Pikes Peak ice-cream mountain on her birthday, whilst drums banged, whistles whistled, bells rang, and the staff of Farrells, and all their customers sang HAPPY BIRTHDAY. SINGHA PORNTIP's husband threatening to divorce her unless she bowled better, then having to rescue her as all the men crowded about her making proposals of one sort or another! The BENSONS who loaned us their house, pool and car: finally working out what GEORGE SARAHETE (FIQ) was saying when he said "Vold Jems Vün Senta Clearer Sony Kelly Formula" Well done George a magnificent job, really: The Legendary HELEN DUVAL aged 65 with a 212 average. Time for us all yet! YVONNE BERDT from Austria who cut her hair short and developed sunburned ears; - honest - Nev Robinson presented a new AMF Angle for inspection, he'd had it sanded all over - "it looks like it's been pulled out of the river" they said. They were wrong - it looked much worse than that!

I understand our machine has nicked your new ball?

Thereafter he was "WUZZING" his "WANGLE" irregularly, the little wussock, at least that's what I thought he said, perhaps I should have asked George? We patiently answered half a thousand times "no we had not watched THE WEDDING because we were bowling in the early squad", actually we did'nt have a T.V. set MA'AM, just in case Shrimpton sends HER a copy: BEAUTIFUL, IMMACULATE BOWLING CENTRES, FRIENDLY SMILING PEOPLE; YES - CALIFORNIA SMILES: ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS TO 'FALMER JEANS' FOR SUPPLYING OUTFITS FOR GILL & NEVILLE.
