

SPARTAN TRIOS

by Steve White

The new season got under way with John O'Neill setting the pace with a 237 game but this was surpassed in week 2 by his team mate John Tinnams with a 241, other nice games to come from week 2 were 223 from Pat Reed, 210 from Sylvia Thomas and a 224 from her husband Howard Thomas.

In week 3 we saw junior bowler David Mills bowl his highest game and series to date, a 246 and 592 (but more was still to come), his team mate, Adrian Conner, had a 235 first game but this was followed up with a 126 (I think they call that brain fade). A maiden 200 game was also bowled this week, by Alan Reed with a 217. SNAFU set the target for the scratch team series and game with 1744 and 632 in which Steve White bowled a 246.

John Tinnams came up to me on week 4, all excited that he had just bowled his first 600, until I showed him an old Bowling News with a report that I had previously written saying the very same, what a short memory he has, anyway, well done John on your second 600 series.

Gloria Pattinson, in week 8, had a good second game, a 233, we wont mention the other two games!

Week eleven saw Frank Weston bowl a 223 game and John Tinnams have his third 600 series, a 622, with games of 226, 211 and 185.

Three 600's were bowled in week 12, one from me, a 632, one from Syd Goodwin, a 638 which included a very nice 254 game, and one from Paul Fletcher, a 606 with a 246 game.

Three more 600's were bowled in week 13, Bert Mitchell 610, Paul Fletcher, again, 617 and Ivan Amos 607.

Good scoring came in week 14, with Ivan having another 600, a 605 to be exact and Syd Goodwin 613. The best score of the night came from Team Nine, Christine and Adrian Conner and junior bowler David Mills. Christine started with a 191, Adrian with a 222 but David bowled a 255 which gave them a scratch team game of 668. David went on to bowl games of 205 and 179 for a 639 series, so eclipsing his previous best score and having his third 600 series. His team also went on to make a 1734 scratch team series.

Yours truly had another 600 in week 15, a 610 and my other Arf had a 235 game but I wont mention the 148 she bowled afterwards or she might hit me.

So half way through the season and we have a tie between the Hustlers and Then'n'er for first place with Nine Again only 0.5 of a point behind and Not Enough 2 points behind the leaders in fourth place. Paul Fletcher lead the men's averages on a 185 with Steve White second on a 183. Sheila White leads the ladies averages on a 174 but when Christine Conner bowls enough games she will pose a large threat to Sheila.

With two thirds of our 1993 season gone the Kent Redskins, Paul Barton, Anne and Kevin Osborne, David Finnerty and Terry Connelly, have a slender lead of the defending champions, The Pinslayers, Fred Collins, John Darby Steve Cook and Jim Middleditch, who have open up a fair lead over the third team, The Hitchikers, Sandra and Steve Williams, Paul Roberts and Ray McDonald.

Some good personal performances of late include a 448 series for Glen Roberts (not bad for a 113 average bowler), 224 game and 572 series from Ian Krangel, a 610 from Tony Rossi, a 223 and 604 from Kevin Osborne, 582 from Tony Cummerson, a 485 from Phil Jones (130 average), 609 from Bill Shrimpton, a 562 from Lucy Cudmore and 601 from Daniel Patey. Lucy and Daniel being junior bowlers.

The new doubles format has now established itself as an exciting alternative to last seasons four man teams and the added spice of relegation and promotion spots has made the weekly scrap for points even more intense.

The Falcons division is headed by Quick Shots on 23 points, mainly due to some excellent bowling from Dawn Webster and Cheryl Pittway. Ian Abrol has bowled extremely consistently during recent weeks, and his 9 year old brother, Robert, deserves some credit for taking 3 points solo for his team, Cool and Easy. Leigh Croasdell, 12, has stormed to pole position in the individual averages, a personal best set of 406 has seen to this. Two pins behind Leigh is Guyan Pattinson, holding a 97 average.

Moving swiftly onto the Eagles division, led by the aptly named Where Eagles Dare on 24 points. Steve Dale's 403 and 401 have been the cornerstones of recent successes. Dave Howe's personal best series of 433 was well deserved, as was Joseph Loveland's 439. Joseph's team mate, Adam Pittway, persevered for a 370 set thus helping his team up the table.

Twelve year old Katie Harlin's consistent sparing has seen her raise her personal best game and series to 162 and 429. Ten year old Nick Weston threw a 205 game which was not only his personal best high game but the high game so far in the Eagles division. Nick's new Hurricane ball took him to a 444 series.

The high series has been commanded by leftie Brendan O'Grady, 189, 144, 145 = 478. Brendan added to the ever growing list of personal best games and series with his effort.

Two other notable performances have come from Amanda Thomas 406 and Haley Patey 400.

The individual averages are very close, Brendan O'Grady's 127 is just holding off Haley Patey's 126.

Our new bowlers, the Fledglings, have, on some occasions, out bowled the more experienced members of our club. Chris Grant giving us a glimpse of what is to come with 120 game, 281 series, and Leigh Walker has thrown two personal bests, 144 game and 349 series.

The Kestrels division is led by All Revs and No Brains, who recently set a new standard for the team high game and series. Scores were Ed Shrimpton 200, Dave Mills 205 for a 405 game, and Ed 505, Dave 559 for a 1064 series.

Matt Yeates and Danny Manchester have both recorded new personal high games lately, 209 and 221 respectively.

Bowler of the week winning series have been shot by Lucy Cudmore 508 and Paul Dunbar 511, a personal best for Paul. Jeff White boosted his average with a 222 game (which included 7 strikes in a row) in his 580 series. Yet another personal best from the hands of Mike Foord, a 237. Mike has built up a comfortable lead in the averages, 161, over Daniel Patey's 157.

With the next major junior tournament not until late May, the Nationals at Enfield, we should have some time to get stuck into the second half of our exciting season.

CLIFTONVILLE

BLACKPIN LEAGUE

from Dave Buck

Week 28

The Youngsters 3 v Capos 0 - Three points plus two points bonus saw the Youngsters extend their lead at the top to over three points. A fine 664 series from Ron Houston paved the way for an easy victory over the luckless Capos.

Deadly Doughnuts 3 v Demolition 0 - A good win for the Doughnuts, for with an additional one and a half points bonus they moved back into second spot. A good overall team performance with all players rolling above average put paid to Demolition who suffered a minus bonus to add to their problems.

Bowlmasters 1 v Kamikazi Trio 2 - An unexpected result as the high flying Masters suffered a set back to their title hopes in this low scoring match. Both teams lost bonus but the first two points in favour of the Trio came to their aid.

Manhattans 3 v Splitz 0 - A good haul of over five points kept Manhattans in touch with the front runners thanks to a 624 series from Darryl Oldfield whilst Splitz kept up their record in the bonus stakes by collecting another point.

High Rollers 1 v Heavy Impact 2 - After two good games the Heavies lost their way in the last letting the rollers in but the mishap was covered by a bonus point.

On Strike 1 v S & S Motors 2 - On Strike proved hard nuts to crack and stayed the course well to take the last game after narrowly losing the second by a mere three pins. Motors, with a poor last game, failed to make their target and lost valuable bonus opportunity.

Week 29

Manhattans 0 v The Youngsters 3 - A bit of a walk over here for the Youngsters as an out of salts Manhattans succumbed to a good overall team effort by the league leaders. Although there was nothing outstanding a solid 182 average per man gave them the points and a 48 pin bonus.

Deadly Doughnuts 3 v Capos 0 - The Doughnuts are still in there fighting, now only just behind the leaders by 113 pins, not much after 29 weeks! Once again the value of rolling your target was borne out as they made bonus for the fifteenth week in a row, which is now something of a record.

On Strike 1 v Bowlmasters 2 - The ladies of On Strike put together three consistent games, with Ann Searle once again being the mainstay, to take one point and earn another for bonus. The Masters have faltered during the past month and are gradually slipping away from the top two having won only six of their last twelve games.

S & S Motors 3 v Heavy Impact 0 - The Motors may have left their run for the top a little too late. Although picking up game points they are sadly lacking in the bonus department. After a good opening game they were hard pressed to take the remaining points off a Heavies side that was well below par.

High Rollers 2 v Kamikazi Trio 1 - In an evenly matched encounter the Rollers took the lions share of the points from the Trio who have hit a rough patch of late, but I bet their luck changes next week.

Demolition 1 v Splitz 2 - In a low scoring match, Splitz easily took two points just managing to make their target unlike Demolition who were well down on theirs.

Week 30

On Strike 1 v The Youngsters 2 - An early set back for league leaders The Youngsters as they lost the first game to the ladies of On Strike. They did not falter again however and easily won the 2nd and 3rd games but failed to reach their target a lost a huge 3 pins bonus. The ladies fared worse and lost a massive 8 pins bonus.

Deadly Doughnuts 2 v Manhattans 1 - Second placed Doughnuts cut the difference between them and pole position to just over 1 point by virtue of this win and a bonus point. A very close finish is on the cards with the crucial match being the head to head with the Youngsters in the penultimate fixture.

Bowlmasters 1 v Heavy Impact 2 - Despite a far better overall pinfall, 3rd placed Bowlmasters were mugged by the Heavies but had the compensation of 1.5 bonus points. There was a welcome return to form for Mike Luckhurst with a 625 series.

Kamikazi Trio 1 v S & S Motors 2 - In this keenly contested match the Motors just managed to take the majority of points by a meagre 5 pins in the final game thanks to a 247 game and a 635 series from Dave Buck.

High Rollers 3 v Demolition 0 - In a very low scoring match the Rollers secured all three points and just made their target unlike Demolition who were well down on theirs.

Splitz 2 v Capos 1 - In a very even match the points went in favour of the Splitz until the last game when Capos bowled to their known form to take the point, but could not avoid a minus bonus.

Week 31

Deadly Doughnuts 2 v Splitz 1 - The Doughnuts clawed their way back into top spot after another very consistent pinfall for 1.4 bonus points plus the two game points. They certainly are complimenting each other to reach their target figure which they have never surpassed for the last seventeen weeks. After a first good game, in which Trevor Brown rolled his first 200 game, Splitz were unable to keep up with the Deadly Trio.

The Youngsters 1 v Bowlmasters 2 - Last weeks leaders, The Youngsters, after a good start fell foul of Mike Luckhurst who completed a fine 660 series even after a 168 first game! A very evenly contested match ended with the Masters in charge and collecting a useful 3 points with bonus.

Manhattans 2 v On Strike 1 - Manhattans slipped up in the second game to let the ladies of On Strike in for a point and had to settle for 2 points and a small bonus.

S & S Motors 1 v High Rollers 2 - The Rollers took the first two games as the Motors found themselves all at sea until the final game when the A.A. man appeared.

Demolition 1 v Capos 2 - Two teams who have not had the best of seasons fought out a tight friendly battle with the Capos just having the edge. Both teams could have wished for similar bonus scores a few weeks earlier.

Week 34

The Youngsters 2 v Deadly Doughnuts 1 - After this top of the table clash the eventual champions are still locked into a duel right to the last week. The Youngsters closed the gap to a mere 80 pins behind the Doughnuts as both teams made bonus. So its all down to the last night with neither team having a particularly easy fixture.

S & S Motors 2 Bowl Masters 1 - In this high scoring match the Motors just edged out the Masters in the last game with the teams average over 200 (including handicap) per game, both sides made good bonus with the bulk of the scores made up of a 606 series from Chris Rice of the Motors and a 599 from Gary Steventon of the Masters.

Heavy Impact 3 v Manhattans 0 - This match is best forgotten especially for the Manhattans who had a disastrous night dropping not only all the points but losing 2 bonus points in the bargain to drop out of the trophy places. The Heavies remain in the mid table never having reached their potential this season.

Splitz 1 v High Rollers 2 - Both teams made virtually equal bonus in a close encounter where the Rollers put together a good last game to out point the Splitz.

Capos 3 v On Strike 0 - Capos must have gone to church on Sunday to see "George" judging by their performance, but must have dropped off during the sermon and failed to hear the finer points about rolling a 500!! The ladies of On Strike were alas sadly below par and easily beaten.

FINAL RESULTS 1992/3

1st place - Deadly Doughnuts - Consistence has been their secret, having made their target figure on no fewer than 29 times out of 35, to take full advantage of the bonus points on offer. So its congratulations to Captain Don Cook and his team of Trish Smith and Gill Cook with a little help, in the chauffeuring department and as catering officer, from Chris Smith.

2nd place - The Youngsters - Our happy little chaps put up a great fight in an effort to secure the title but a poor result three games from home set them back two points from which they were never to recover. They averaged 177 per man for the season winning 68 out of 105 games so well done to Colin Ottaway, Ron Houston, Andy Allerton and Steve Milham.

3rd place - Bowlmasters - Up to the end of the second round they were the in-form team and likely title contenders but they could not keep up the charge for the final run in and were left high and dry in third spot, the same as last year. Still, well done to Gary Steventon, Barbara Endicott, Mick Chapman and Jan and Mike Luckhurst.

4th place - Manhattans - Manhattans had an off season for them, never fully being able to get all three players on-song at the same time and therefore unable to capitalise on their bonus potential. Clive Smith lead Bob Gentry, John Smith and Darryl Oldfield into the fray.

5th place - Heavy Impact - After the first round the Heavies were well in contention looking menacing to say the least but they lost impetus gradually over the course of the next two rounds to finish in 5th spot lead by Larry Saunders with Pete Woodward, Martin Howard, Paul Crundel and Alun Hawkins.

6th place - S & S Motors - Last years champions, although only 175 pins down on last years pinfall, lacked that killer instinct when the games were close and the bonus up for grabs. Baz Skelton, who leads his little band of Andy Jasper, Chris Rice and Dave Buck, was given more than a few headaches by a certain member with his goalkeeping heroics.

7th place - High Rollers - They bowled well in their first season together lead by John Barnes with Nick Cayzer, Kevin Stocker and Steve Saville. All had their moments particularly Steve who hit a 269 game in week 2 that was to remain league high game.

8th place - Splitz - The most improved team in the league after finishing in eleventh place last season. They have become no push over and are always ready to take advantage given a sight of the points. Lead by Jenny Cook with Doreen Smith, Trevor Brown, Mike Sammonds and Maggie Vigneron who sadly was unable to bowl after week six through illness.

9th place - Kamikazi Trio - Finishing in an identical place to last year the Trio had their chances but were generally unable to secure enough three pointers to make an impact on the teams above them. They do however have some consolation in winning the Team High Game with handicap Trophy with a 724 game rolled by Ray Waspe, Derren Cavell and Karl Horton with Eric Woodruff on the bench during that match.

10th place - On Strike - A better result for our only all ladies team, who last year were our wooden spoonists. Consistent games, the secret of the scoring system, seemed to elude them although they still had a 45% success rate. Never mind ladies, that gentle tough is still appreciated in the hands of Anne Searle, Pat Saunders and Jackie and Amanda Ottaway.

11th place - Demolition - Drastic ups and downs were the main reason for their final placings, they got off to a good start and looked a good bet to finish in the top half of the table. The loss of some games by odd pins did not help their cause but the team lead by Kevin Williams with Steve Wilson, Steve Eastop, Mick Lewis and John Martin cannot be ruled out once they get the rub of the green.

12th place - Capos - What can we say? Dogged by injury and financial restraints they did complete the season to their credit without so much as a whinge and their usual happy outlook. With a consistent team next year and the guidance of the coach Geroge Carey the team of Mike Sequenza, Bob Avery and Dave Davis could pose more than a few problems.

ANIMAL LEAGUE

by Phil Dawson

Our season came to a close on the 10th of May, and as everyone prepares for the big knees-up, our congratulations go to the new champions THE BUFFALOES. The impressive trio of Paul Crundell, Chris Rice and John Smith with back up from reserve Darryl Oldfield have triumphantly trampled over their opponents this year with 28 victories out of 33 games. To add to that incredible statistic, Paul took the male high average award, John was awarded the male most improved bowler award, Chris received High series scratch award and our Champions walked away with all the team prizes.

In 2nd place came the Terradogs with a third successive title not to be for Paul and Phil Dawson, Ian Ottaway and new squad member Paul Stevens. The Lucky Lucky Terradogs were always chasing shadows this year and hopefully next year the Dogs might find the Terra they seemed to be missing this year to push the Buffaloes.

Going into the last week, the main prize still up for grabs was third place. Holding that spot before the last evening were the Crab Army with the Horny Rhinos close behind. The Crabs needed at least 3 points against the Terradogs, sang all evening and gleefully walked away with all 8. For Mat Slade, Paul Murphy, Barry Skelton and Mark Icke to finish in 3rd place was great, but Mark had more to celebrate, winning both high game awards and the high series with handicap.

Although winning their last game 6-2, our Rhinos ended up disappointed due to the Crabs result, but they gave their closest rivals a run for their money with such an impressive finish to their season. Dave Webster, Steve Milham, Colin and Jackie Ottaway completed the season with six straight wins and deservedly finished in fourth place.

Final Top Four Positions:

1st	Buffaloes	205 pts
2nd	Terradogs	185.5 pts
3rd	Crabs	170.5 pts
4th	Rhinos	161 pts

Finishing in 5th place are the Pandas, John Boulton, Anne Seale, Mo Paget and Kevin Williams. These four have had a good season with everyone struggling to get results off them, but a lack of destroying their opponents dearly cost them in the end, loosing out in the medal placings.

The big surprise of the season was with the Beavers, Mick Chapman, Mike Luckhurst, Carol Wynn and Alan Anstice. Usually as soon as January 1st comes, our busy Beavers push themselves through the pack and into the top four, but this year their passage was blocked, losing five of their last six matches and drowning in 6th place.

Heading the second half of the table in 7th place are the Little and Large team the Lynx. The four, Clive Smith, Ron Houston, Pat Cruttenden and Joyce Chapman bowled better than their league position reads with our little Joyce being awarded medals for high female game and series handicap and the most improved lady bowler.

Following behind are the Koalas. Our cuddly foursome of Joyce Grimes, Jill Baldwin, Jackie Eason and Lesley Clarke have brought some colour into an argumentative Animal season, with their lovely shirts and smiling faces, promising their secretary they'll be back once the temperature cools down a bit. One Koala didn't go empty handed, with Jill winning female high average award, high game and high series scratch.

Ending in 9th position are the Leopards, Stuart Evans, Dave Greig, Mark Webster and captained by Steve Eastop. This was an up and down season for our four male Leopards who realistically need a good FEMALE coach to sort them out when they are losing too many spots, sorry, I meant points.

Into the bottom three, we find our other all ladies team, The Jackals. Loosing more matches than their wins and draws put together, our girls smiled through every defeat and caused a good few nail biting moments to the trophy chasing teams. Our four laughing Jackals were Barbara Endicott, Lynne Baldwin, Marilyn Griffiths and Sheila Webster.

Second to bottom came Frank Boyden, Les Ware, Dave Kingsland and John Barnes, our four experienced Zebras. Youth was not on their side this year with everyone out running them but with young Frank leading his team they will be back for another go next year.

Last but not least are the Stallions. These three lads, Martin Gibson, Steve and Chris Hatt and Grandad Roger Hatt were quiet as mice when we started the league in September, yet they were taken under the Crabs shell and taught how to be noisy whilst singing out of tune. God help us next year.

Thus ends the last report of the Animal winter league at the Top Ten, Cliftonville. see you all in September and please don't forget your cotton wool for your ears.

WAKEY WAKEY LEAGUE

by Karen Dawson

In the chase for the title, two teams have pulled away from the rest of the pack. The Wallies III, Kevin Stocker, Phil and Karen Dawson, are holding top spot, with seven wins and a draw from their last eight matches.

With Still In Bed, Paul Stevens, Ian and Amanda Ottaway, rushing out of their pits, trying to keep with their fiercest rivals, though with having played a game more, they must hope the Wallies live up to their name.

Storming into third place are W.A.P., Jackie and Colin Ottaway and Ann Ward, who have now gone five weeks without defeat, jumping over their main rivals with some impressive bowling, with the Spares, Anne Millerchip and Christine Hames, pushing hard in fourth place. Our two ladies are the first of four teams fighting for the third position and the last medal place.

Last years winners, The Yawners, Mick Lewis, Mick Eastland and Steve Eastop, are struggling with their form, our Tired Pumas, Pat and Peter Dawson, seem to be our draw specialities, the Sunday Traders, Kevin Miles, Simon Fassam and Christine Watson, lost three and have now gone three weeks unbeaten.

Between The Sheets, Doreen Smith and Marion Quittenden are slowly falling down the table after having such an impressive middle section.

Star Trek, Marie and Mike Redhead who have flown off to other pastures, are now being caught by everybody, starting with Star Strike, Brett and Janice Hewitt and Michela Schwingen. These two have now pulled past both Hotshots and 2 Live Crew and look to be safely away from receiving the wooden spoon in their first season.

Our Hotshots, Stuart Evans and Antony Green, are also pulling away from bottom position, fighting off 2 Live Crew, David James and David Greig, and with only approximately five weeks to go their next few results are going to be important with the bottom team this year receiving the inevitable Wooden Spoon.

Top Four Positions are:

1st	Wallies III	76.5 pts
2nd	Still In Bed	75 pts
3rd	W.A.P.	63.5 pts
4th	Spares	60 pts
